Preface

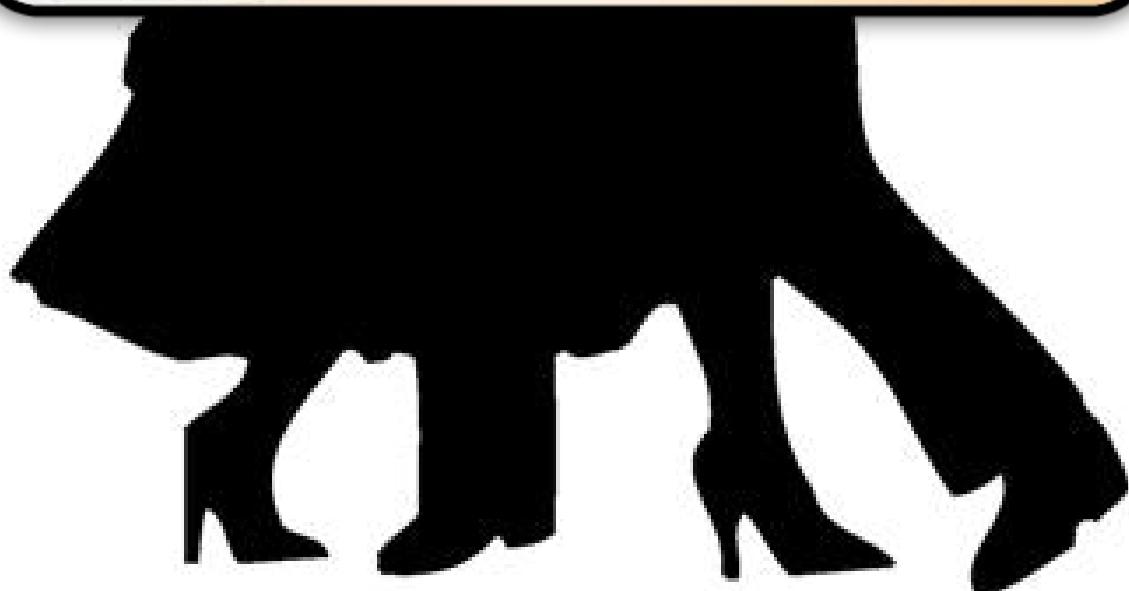

Welcome to the rewarding world of DanceSport Scrutineering! This book of practice exercises and its parent text, Scoring DanceSport Competitions: Judging and Scrutineering using The Skating System, form the basis of a new Scrutineering Certification Program being implemented under the direction of the USA Dance DanceSport Council. Before introducing the contents of this book, we would like to acknowledge the contributions of Jeff Carlsen, Master Scrutineer, who originally compiled this text and gave his permission for it to be updated and reprinted for use by USA Dance, Inc.

If you have already read Scoring DanceSport Competitions, you understand the Skating System but most likely need some practice to build accuracy and speed, two essential factors in preparing for certification and successfully scrutinizing DanceSport events. This practice book contains hundreds of real-life scoring examples covering each of the seven rules that govern scrutinizing at DanceSport events. Additionally, each section contains a brief review of the specific rule to which the examples contained therein apply. The first four sections correspond to Rules 5 through 8 of the Skating System, the rules dealing with single-dance calculations. The next section provides a mixture of single-dance exercises so that you can test your proficiency of Rules 5 through 8 without reference or hesitation. The next three sections correspond to Rules 9 through 11, the rules addressing multiple-dance calculations. When working on the exercises for Rule 10, if you believe the answer is a tie and you must apply Rule 11, simply write “R11” in the RESULT column. Remember, there are subtle intricacies associated with Rules 10 and 11 that often require the scrutineer to bounce back and forth between the two rules. If you are unsure of those intricacies, please review the corresponding sections of Scoring DanceSport Competitions before attempting the practice exercises.

Following the multiple-dance section, you will find a sample Scrutineering Certification Examination, as well as information on certifying as a DanceSport Scrutineer through USA Dance, Inc. Please remember that the exam must be completed within 40 minutes and with 100% accuracy. Blank judging and scrutinizing forms are also provided. These may be photocopied for your convenience and use. Finally, the answers for all of the examples and for the sample examination are provided at the end of the book.

Information regarding the certification program, as well as various other resources to assist in scrutinizing DanceSport events, is available on-line at <http://usadance.org>. Best of luck in your practice and preparation to become a Certified DanceSport Scrutineer.

Rule 5

The winner of a particular dance is the couple who is placed 1st by an absolute majority of the judges; 2nd place is awarded to the couple who is placed 2nd or higher by an absolute majority. The remaining positions are allocated in a similar way.

Rule 7

If two or more couples have an equal majority for the same position, the following are used to determine placement:

- a) If such majorities are equal, then the lowest total (i.e., sum) of marks given by those judges who form the majority shall determine the allocation of the place in question.
- b) If the totals of marks are also equal, then the next lower place (or places, as necessary) must be included to break the tie, with the largest majority of placements being allocated the place under review.

The process continues, moving back and forth between Rule 7a (lowest total) and Rule 7b (largest majority of next lower placements), until the tie is broken. If couples are still tied after all marks considered, then the couples are deemed tied for the event.

Rule 8

If no couple receives a majority of “1st place” marks, then the winner is the couple who was placed “2nd and higher” by a majority of judges. If no couple receives a majority of “1st and 2nd place) marks, then 3rd place (and if necessary, lower places) must be included (subject to Rules 6 and 7) to determine placement. The other places should be tabulated in a similar way.

Rule 9

Rule 9

When all the dances in a multi-dance event have been concluded, the “placement” order tabulated for each dance is carried to another sheet showing the places achieved by each couple in each dance. The 1st place couple in each dance is given a “1,” the 2nd place couple a “2,” and so on. The place marks received by each couple are added together, and the couple with the lowest total is awarded 1st place. The couple with the next lowest total is awarded 2nd place, the next lower total is awarded 3rd place, and so on.

Rule 10

If there is a tie for a place in the final summary, the following are used to break the tie:

- a) If there is a tie under Rule 9 for 1st place, the winner is the couple who has actually “won” the greater number of dances
- b) If two couples tie for 2nd place under Rule 9, 2nd place is awarded to the couple who placed “2nd and higher” in the greatest number of dances. If the couples have the same number of “2nd and higher” marks, then the “2nd and higher” marks are added together and the couple with the lower total is awarded 2nd place. All tied couples must be allocated a placement.
- c) If more than two couples tie for 2nd place under Rule 9, 2nd place is awarded to the couple who has the most “2nd and higher” marks. If the couples have the same number of “2nd and higher” marks, then the “2nd and higher” marks are added together and the couple with the lower total is awarded 2nd place (see Rule 10b). Still only considering the remaining “tied” couples, 3rd place is awarded to the couple who has the most “3rd and higher” marks. If the couples have the same number of “3rd and higher” marks, then the “3rd and higher” marks are added together and the couple with the lower total is placed 3rd. This process continues until all “tied” couples have been awarded placements.
- d) If there is a tie for any of the remaining places under Rule 9, they are decided on similar principles.
- e) There will be a tie under Rule 10 if any of the following occur. Rule 11 is then applied to break the tie, but only for the couples actually concerned in the tie:

Tie for First Place

1. If the tied couples have won the same number of dances.
2. If none of the tied couples has actually won a dance.

Tie for Other Places

3. If the tied couples have the same number of place marks (or higher) corresponding the place under review, and the totals of those marks are also equal. Do not include the next lower placement to break the tie.
4. If none of the tied couples has actually won a place mark (or higher) corresponding to the place under review.

It must be remembered that when two or more couples have the same total in the final summary, then these couples are actually equal in all-round efficiency. Where this occurs, the couple who has obtained the highest efficiency in the greatest number of dances corresponding to (or higher than) the position under review, is awarded that place.

Rule 11

Rule 11

If after Rules 9 and 10 have been applied the result is still a tie (see Rule 10e), the judges' marks for the "tied" couples over all dances shall be treated as for an individual dance and tabulated per Rules 5 – 8 to break the tie. If this still results in a tie, there shall be, at the discretion of the competition organizers, either a re-dance or the prizes for the places under review shall be divided. The following conditions apply:

- a) If the tie is for 1st place, an absolute majority of "1st place" marks to the credit of either of the "tied" couples (4 dances × 5 judges = 20, or a majority of 11) is awarded 1st place. If neither of the "tied" couples obtains an absolute majority of "1st place" marks, the tie is broken using Rule 8.
- b) If the tie is for 2nd place, an absolute majority of "2nd and higher" marks to the credit of either of the "tied" couples is necessary to award 2nd place. If neither of the "tied" couples obtains an absolute majority of "2nd and higher" marks, the tie is broken using Rule 8.
- c) All other "tied" places (3rd place or lower) are decided on similar principles.
- d) If three (or more) couples tie for a place under Rule 10 (for example, 2nd place), Rule 11 is applied to all couples concerned in the tie, and the couple with the largest majority of judges' marks (per Rules 5, 6, and 7) is awarded 2nd place. Rule 10 is then applied to the remaining "tied" couples for consideration of the place now under review, which is 3rd place. However, if the remaining now tie for 3rd place under Rule 10, then rule 11 is again applied to these "tied" couples, commencing this time with the "3rd and higher" judges' marks in the individual dances.
